SAGUARO NATIONAL PARK OFFERS JUNIOR RANGER WILDERNESS DAY CAMP

For Kids 10 to 13 Years Old

Tucson, AZ – Saguaro National Park's Tucson Mountain District (Saguaro West) will offer a three-day Junior Ranger Wilderness Day Camp, for kids 10 through 13 years of age. The dates for the camp will be Saturday, Sunday and Monday, December 18th through 20th. The camp includes a variety of fun, hands-on activities such as hiking, exploring, compass and map reading, radio telemetry tracking of Desert Tortoise, and an exhilarating night hike with story telling. Children will also learn how to select a campsite and pitch a tent, cook with a lightweight backpack stove, and hike safely in the wilderness. These skills will be learned through active demonstrations and activities, all designed to help children explore the desert, learn about nature, and have fun in the great outdoors. Camp hours are 9:30 am to 6:30 pm on Saturday and Sunday, and 10:30 am to 8:30 pm on Monday. The camp will conclude with a night hike on Monday under a nearly full moon. Please let us know if families need special arrangements for drop-off or pick-up times. The camp will be held at the park's Environmental Education Center, near the Red Hills Visitor Center, located at 2700 North Kinney Road (approximately 2 miles northwest of the Arizona Sonora Desert Museum). As space in the camp is limited, advanced reservations are required, and must be made by December 13th. To register for the camp, or for more detailed information, please contact Park Ranger Chip Littlefield. You can reach Chip by telephone at 733-5157, or by E-mail at chip\_littlefield@nps.gov. The camp fee is $30 per child for all three days. Don't wait, sign up now!
